Friday, June 6 Outing to the Stockyards

At 10 am our group will meet across the street from the Stockyards Station, (parking is paid by phone app) 157 E. Exchange Ave., Fort Worth. [Free parking may be available on 23rd Street.] Public restrooms are located at the meeting point. The group will have free time for walking, photo ops on the old town Mule Alley street, shopping, restaurants, free live music at Second Rodeo Brewing (opens at 11 am), ice cream, and/or touring the historic Hotel Drover, 200 Mule Alley, Fort Worth, TX. Attire: Casual. (It will be warm out!)

Fort Worth Longhorn Steer Cattle Drive Begins at 11:30am Marvel at the longhorn as they parade through the street, led by a “drover,” the Fort Worth Herd Trail Boss. Drovers are available before each cattle drive for photo ops and questions.

Note: If you miss the cattle drive, the Fort Worth Herd steers can be viewed before and after cattle drives in their pens behind the Livestock Exchange Building or at the Observation Deck just east of the Livestock Exchange Building on East Exchange Avenue.

Friday, June 6 Social Mixer

5-7 pm is our Social Mixer at the main event venue, Keene City Hall, 1000 N. Old Betsy Rd., Cleburne, TX. Enjoy a short interactive presentation, while grazing on substantial Gluten-Free appetizers, included in ticket price. Attire: Smart Casual.

Saturday, June 7 Main Event

9am-5pm is our main Business Training Leadership Mastery Event. Learn powerful insights to grow your business, taught by Youngevity industry leaders Scott and Juliette Fardulis, Sean and Annelise Brown and Alex Theis. Catered Gluten-Free hot Mexican food lunch is included in your ticket price. Bring a notebook and pen. Please, no children or pets allowed. Attire: Business or Business Casual.
